Suggested Sermon Discussion Questions Isaiah 66, “The Conclusion to All Conclusions”

1. Read Isaiah 1:21–28. How is this passage similar to Isaiah 66:15–24?
2. Read v. 2b. How many other places in the Scriptures can you list where God rewards people who are convicted of sin and call out for mercy?
3. Pick one or two of the passages that you’ve identified above and let it inform prayers that you can pray for yourself or for others.
4. Verses 7-14 speak of finding joy in God’s plan to abundantly bless and use His people. What can you praise the Lord for when you think of how God is using His people even today?
5. As we end our study of Isaiah, take time to consider: Are you one of the religious hypocrites who goes through the motions of Christianity. Or, have you trembled before Him and trusted in Him for mercy? Take time to talk to the Lord about these realities in your life.
