Mark 10:17-31

“The Carnage of Comfort”

1. If repentance must precede regeneration, how might this affect how you talk to people about Jesus?
2. What’s wrong with the bumper sticker saying, “Try Jesus”?
3. If God alone is good, should we be applying that term to other things?
4. Practical realities . . . Jesus put his finger on the ONE THING Rich lacked. What is the one thing in your life that you might resist parting with?
5. Why doesn’t God condemn riches if they lead to so much sinful behavior and often become idols?
6. God seems to be firmly, even violently, jealous of his glory. Does that worry you or give you pause? How do you reconcile that part of God’s character with his mercy or love?
7. Why didn’t Jesus chase after Rich and tell him the same things he told the disciples?
