Philippians 1:3–11, “A Model Gospel-Partnership”

1. Who comes to your mind when you think of who you partner with in the cause of the gospel?
2. Knowing what you know about the disunity present in the Philippian church, how would verse six be an encouragement to them?
3. What would it mean for your love to abound more and more? What would that practically look like in your life?
4. Pray for God to further grow your love and affection for other believers as you seek to partner together for the sake of the gospel.
