Suggested Sermon Discussion Questions Philippians 2:12–18, “Lives That Shine”

1. When verse 12 says to “work out your salvation,” Paul is speaking of the effort we make in striving side by side for the faith of the gospel. How are you currently obeying this command?
2. As you serve the Lord and His people, are you doing so for His pleasure? If not, why not?
3. How is it an encouragement to know that God is working in you?
4. In what ways have you recently seen God working in your life?
5. Is there any grumbling or disputing in your life that requires repentance? How could repentance be carried out practically?
6. How does the gospel help you as you seek to be a “star” for Christ?
7. Paul thinks of himself as a drink offering poured out upon the Philippians’ own lives of sacrificial service. Who are you a drink offering for?
