Suggested Sermon Discussion Questions Philippians 4:2–9, “Peace Available When Conflict Arises”

1. Why do you think Paul lists the positive qualities of Euodia and Syntyche in vv. 2–3?
2. What do your prayers during relational conflict typically sound like?
3. If you are currently in relational conflict, consider writing out a prayer shaped by vv. 4–7 and James 4:2–3.
4. Consider another Christian who has been difficult to love. Walk through the list in vv. 8–9 and apply it to their life.
