

Ecclesiastes 11:1-6

Passage Reflection

This page is meant for individuals, small group Bible studies, or one-on-one interactions. Since learning more about the text's meaning in our corporate gathering, I would encourage you to meditate on the passage again so that you might respond to God in praise and obedience. While I have not answered all of the questions below for you, I've included some of my personal meditations that may be of some benefit. May reflection on this passage be used by God to conform you into the image of Christ.

-Pastor Andrew

What do I learn about God?

Again – God is the only One who knows the future.

Is there anything for which I should repent based on this text?

Is there any way that I am trying to ensure success in the future apart from resting in God's providential care?

How might God use this passage to make me look more like Christ?

Work, serve, love, and give while trusting God the Father for the results.

How does this passage affect evangelism?

True security for the future is found by being in God's hand.

How can I edify the church based on what this passage says?

Encourage people in their life and ministry endeavors. When difficulties arise in people's lives, businesses, and relationships to remind them that they are in the hands of God.
