

Ecclesiastes 12:9-14

Passage Reflection

This page is meant for individuals, small group Bible studies, or one-on-one interactions. Since learning more about the text's meaning in our corporate gathering, I would encourage you to meditate on the passage again so that you might respond to God in praise and obedience. While I have not answered all of the questions below for you, I've included some of my personal meditations that may be of some benefit. May reflection on this passage be used by God to conform you into the image of Christ.

What do I learn about God?

God is the Shepherd behind the live-giving words of Ecclesiastes (v.11)

Is there anything for which I should repent based on this text?

Are there any of God's words that I have neglected or rebelled against?

How might God use this passage to make me look more like Christ?

Fear God and keep His commandments.

How does this passage affect evangelism?

This passage speaks of future judgment. In evangelism, one of the realities that must be brought to bear on the mind of the unbeliever it's that there is a coming judgment.

How can I edify the church based on what this passage says?

Considering all the difficulties of life which are brought up in Ecclesiastes, the applications at the end of the book are the to be obeyed so that we may have abundant life.
