

Tongues and Prophecy in the Bible Passage Reflection

This page is meant for individuals, small group Bible studies, or one-on-one interactions. Since learning more about the text's meaning in our corporate gathering, I would encourage you to meditate on the passage again so that you might respond to God in praise and obedience.

While I have not answered all of the questions below for you, I've included some of my personal meditations that may be of some benefit. May reflection on this passage be used by God to conform you into the image of Christ.

-Pastor Andrew

What do I learn about God?

God graciously communicates His Word in a way that is understandable to the peoples of the world.

Is there anything for which I should repent based on this text?

How might God use this passage to make me look more like Christ?

Christ was always pointing people to the Scriptures. May the Spirit similarly fill my head and heart with the Word of God for myself and for others in whom I am in contact.

How does this passage affect evangelism?

The more I understand His Word rightly, the more I am able to speak it faithfully. Salvation comes to people by hearing the word of truth (Rom 10:14-15)

How can I edify the church based on what this passage says?

Let the word dwell in me richly so that others will benefit as well.

Colossians 3:16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God
