RESOURCES

Book of the Month

The Upside Down Kingdom
by Chris Castaldo

"The Upside Down Kingdom is a guided tour through Jesus' Beatitudes in Matthew 5. Here, we see that the values of Christ's kingdom are radically different from the values of the world. Where the world prizes strength, success, self-promotion, and comfort, Jesus calls his people to humility, mercy, purity, peacemaking, and faithfulness in suffering. The book helps readers see that true blessedness is found not in worldly achievement, but in living under the gracious rule of King Jesus."

Weekly Resource

"The Good News of Easter"
by Crossway

"On the cross of Calvary, Jesus Christ suffered and died in our place so that we would not have to face God's judgment for our sins. And on that first Easter morning he was raised to new life—God's seal of approval that Christ has paid for our sins in full. That enables those who believe Christ died in their place to be 'born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead' (1 Peter 1:3)!"

This Easter Jesus Christ offers you salvation and new life. Through faith in him you can join the countless millions who have believed his promise: 'Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life' (John 3:36). Have you received this good news of Easter? 'God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life' (1 John 5:11-12)."

The London Baptist Confession of 1689

XXX. Of The Lord's Table

6. That doctrine which maintains a change of the substance of Bread and Wine, into the substance of Christ's body and blood (commonly called Transubstantiation) by consecration of a Priest, or by any other way, is repugnant not to Scripture ^aalone, but even to common sense and reason; overthroweth the ^bnature of the ordinance, and hath been and is the cause of manifold superstitions, yea, of gross Idolatries.

^aActs 3:21; Luke 24:6, 39 ^b1 Cor. 11:24–25

7. Worthy receivers, outwardly partaking of the visible Elements in this Ordinance, do then also inwardly by faith, really and indeed, yet not carnally, and corporally, but spiritually receive, and feed upon Christ crucified ^aand all the benefits of his death: the Body and Blood of Christ, being then not corporally, or carnally, but spiritually present to the faith of Believers, in that Ordinance, as the Elements themselves are to their outward senses.

^a1 Cor. 10:16; 1 Cor. 11:23–26

8. All ignorant and ungodly persons, as they are unfit to enjoy communion ^awith Christ; so are they unworthy of the Lord's Table; and cannot without great sin against him, while they remain such, partake of these holy mysteries, ^bor be admitted thereunto: yea whosoever shall receive unworthily are guilty of the Body and Blood of the Lord, eating and drinking judgment to themselves.

^a2 Cor. 6:14–15 ^b1 Cor. 11:29; Matt. 7:6
