

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month

Consider the Lilies
by Jonny Ardavanis

"Consider the Lilies by Jonny Ardavanis explores Jesus' command to trust in God's provision, as seen in Matthew 6. Drawing from scripture and personal insights, Ardavanis reflects on God's care for creation and challenges readers to abandon anxiety and live in faith. The book encourages a Christ-centered perspective on life's uncertainties, offering practical applications for cultivating trust in God's sovereignty and care, and ultimately invites believers to gaze at God's glorious character as a pathway to peace."

- Pastor Josh

Weekly Resource

"What Do You Do When You Are Spiritually Dry?"
by Jacob Crouch

"There are so many things that can be done, but I want to give one piece of advice with two practical applications for those who feel spiritually dry: Don't stop going to the fountain. Often when we feel dry, we are tempted to neglect the one thing that will satisfy our souls. Think about it: When you feel dry, what things do you want to toss out? Bible reading, prayer, fellowship. But this is the problem. If you are dry, spiritually thirsty, the worst thing you can do is go to the desert! You need to go to the fountain! God calls Himself 'the fountain of living waters' (Jer 2:13). If we do not desire God, we need to go to God!."

Outreach Prayer

The Grove Church Planting Network and Mosaic Church in Mesa

Join us in praising God for Grove and Mosaic Church! We are grateful for both a group of churches that seeks to plant healthy churches in Arizona and the first church plant out of this network in Mosaic!

Here are some reasons to be praising God:

- For His provision of a faithful church in an area where it is much needed.
- For Grove's member churches and their commitment to plant healthy churches throughout Arizona.
- For John Pope and Chandler Nick and their commitment to plant and lead Mosaic Church.

Here are some ways to be praying:

- For Mosaic Mesa as they finish their training this fall in preparation for launch in January.
- For God to stir the hearts of likeminded pastors to partner with the Grove and for gospel-hearted men to sense the urgency and risk planting a church for Jesus!
