

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month

Consider the Lilies
by Jonny Ardavanis

"Consider the Lilies by Jonny Ardavanis explores Jesus' command to trust in God's provision, as seen in Matthew 6. Drawing from scripture and personal insights, Ardavanis reflects on God's care for creation and challenges readers to abandon anxiety and live in faith. The book encourages a Christ-centered perspective on life's uncertainties, offering practical applications for cultivating trust in God's sovereignty and care, and ultimately invites believers to gaze at God's glorious character as a pathway to peace."

- Pastor Josh

Weekly Resource

"The God Who Knows"
by Tim Challies

"Yet there is this great difference between Jesus and us: He passed through each and every test of character and through each and every temptation without sin. Never once did he mess up, never once did he fail to love the Lord his God with his whole heart, soul, mind, and strength. Never once did he fail to love his neighbor as himself."

The writer of Hebrews wants us to understand: because Jesus was weak and tempted, he knows—he knows what it is to be weak and tempted. He has experienced it himself. He has endured it himself."

Outreach Prayer
The Church in Nicaragua

Join us in praising God for Pastor Frank and our brothers and sisters in Nicaragua. We are grateful for a church that is faithful to God's Word in a spiritually dark area.

Here are some reasons to be praising God:

- For the group of men that Pastor Frank is training for leadership.
- For opportunities to share the Gospel in the community.
  - For continued provision.

Here are some ways to be praying:

- For the men in the church, that they'd learn to serve and lead in a Christlike manner.
  - For the health of Pastor Frank and his family.
- That 2025 would be a year of great impact for the Gospel.

Hebrews 4:14–5:10

"The One to Whom We Draw Near"

1. What are some ways you battled discouragement and doubt in 2024?
2. What are some of the biggest temptations you will face in 2025?
3. Do you ever feel too far from God or too sinful to draw near to Him?
4. As we think about discouragements, doubts, and sin, what are some of the ways that Hebrews 4 and 5 help us?
5. How do we practically “hold fast to our confession?”
6. What does it look like for us to “draw near” to Him?
7. What is the most encouraging aspect of Jesus’ character that you see in this passage? What about His identity? What about His work? What about His promises?
8. How does knowing who He is and what He’s done change the way we hold fast and draw near?
