

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month

Build on Jesus

by Deepak Reju and Marty Machowski

"Whether you are currently a volunteer in Kids of Canyon or a parent with kids of Canyon, you know that Children's Ministry is not easy. If you need some gospel-rich encouragement in your ministry to Kids, or you've ever wondered how we as a church think about ministering to kids, this book is a beautiful guide full of great ideas about how to apply what scripture teaches about building a children's ministry that is scripture-based, gospel-centered, child-safe, parent-partnering, and all the other hyphenations."

- Pastor Jason

Weekly Resource

"The Fear of God is the Antidote to Our Anxiety"
by Michael Reeves

"Yet, again and again in Scripture we are called to fear. Even more strangely, we are called to fear God. The verse that quickly comes to mind is Proverbs 9:10, "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." In the New Testament, Jesus describes the unrighteous judge as one "who neither feared God nor respected man" (Luke 18:2). Paul writes, "Let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God" (2 Cor. 7:1).

All of which can leave us rather confused. On the one hand, we are told that Christ frees us from fear; on the other, we are told we ought to fear—and fear God, no less. It can leave us wishing that "the fear of God" were not so prominent an idea in Scripture. We have enough fears without adding more, thank you very much. And fearing God just feels so negative, it doesn't seem to square with the God of love we meet in the gospel. Why would any God worth loving want to be feared?"

Outreach Prayer

The Standridge Family
Rome, Italy

Join us in praising God for the Standridge family and their church plant— Chiesa Evangelica Emmanuel. Praise God for our brothers and sisters who desire to bring the truth of the Gospel where the influence of the Roman Catholic Church is heavily concentrated.

Here are some reasons to be praising God:

- For the celebration of the first year as a church plant back in September.
- For the installment of nine new members during this celebration.
- For continued gospel influence in the local area.

Please also join us in prayer for the Standridge Family:

- For strength to face the difficulties in ministry.
- For the health of the church plant as well as its impact for God's Kingdom.
- For wisdom as they are deciding to purchase a home.
