

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month

Build on Jesus

by Deepak Reju and Marty Machowski

"Whether you are currently a volunteer in Kids of Canyon or a parent with kids of Canyon, you know that Children's Ministry is not easy. If you need some gospel-rich encouragement in your ministry to Kids, or you've ever wondered how we as a church think about ministering to kids, this book is a beautiful guide full of great ideas about how to apply what scripture teaches about building a children's ministry that is scripture-based, gospel-centered, child-safe, parent-partnering, and all the other hyphenations."

- Pastor Jason

Weekly Resource

"Life and Godliness"

by Paul David Tripp

"What is godliness? It's a God-honoring life between the time I come to Christ and the time I go home to be with Him. And Christ has already given me everything I need for it! Yes, we face the harsh realities of life in a fallen world, and yes, we still struggle with indwelling sin. But because of my relationship with Christ, I have been given a Warrior Spirit that lives inside of me. He fights on my behalf and enables me to produce good fruit: faith, virtue, knowledge, self-control, steadfastness, godliness, brotherly affection, and love (2 Peter 1:5-7).

This passage is describing the 'here and now' benefits of our salvation. Listen, it's not enough for us to believe in life after death - we need to start believing in life before death. If we understand our identity that we've been given in Christ, we can live filled with hope and courage. Christ has not just forgiven you. He has completely and fundamentally changed who you are, and because of that, you can live in a very new and different way."
