

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month

Trusting God
by Jerry Bridges

"In Trusting God, Jerry Bridges emphasizes the importance of relying on God's control, wisdom, and love during difficult times. He presents trust as a deep belief in God's sovereignty and unconditional love, offering comfort and perspective. By embracing this trust, we can view challenges as opportunities for growth and navigate life's hardships with hope, and help others do the same."

- Pastor John

"How John 1:5 Helps Me from Falling into Pessimism and Despair"
by Sam Storms

"The world is not neutral about God and the Lord Jesus Christ. It hates him. It resists and defies him and lies about him. But take heart, Christian, for John promises us that no matter how deep and pervasive and persistent the darkness may be, it will never, ever conquer or overcome or defeat the light of the person and work of the Word of God, Jesus Christ. It may appear that Jesus is losing ground. It may appear for a season that the church is defeated. It may appear that there are fewer and fewer believers in the world and that church attendance is plummeting. But appearances are most assuredly deceiving.

Jesus is ever-present and all-powerful in the accomplishing of his purpose. Nothing will overcome him. No one will defeat him. His victory is absolutely certain."

Outreach Prayer
 Indian Bible College
 Flagstaff, Arizona

Join us in praising God for IBC and their ministry in equipping students with practical and theological skills in order to bring the Gospel to Native America and the rest of the world.

Here are some reasons to be praising God:

- For new students that are nearly done with their first semester.
- For new staff members contributing to the needs of students and other staff.
- For the various churches that serve IBC.

Please also join us in prayer for YTGRM:

- For the staff, that they would maintain unity and that they would continue to be effective in caring for the students.
- For the 44 students as they progress in the fall semester.
- For a volunteer staff member, Bob, as he battles cancer.
- For a new Native American program, "Ministry Council," as IBC's president, Jason Koppen, spearheads this effort.
