

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month

Trusting God
by Jerry Bridges

"In Trusting God, Jerry Bridges emphasizes the importance of relying on God's control, wisdom, and love during difficult times. He presents trust as a deep belief in God's sovereignty and unconditional love, offering comfort and perspective. By embracing this trust, we can view challenges as opportunities for growth and navigate life's hardships with hope, and help others do the same."

- Pastor John

Weekly Resource

"The Maker of the Mountains Is with You"
by Scott Hubbard

"If we embrace God as our faithful Creator in our suffering, we will begin to find two unmoving rocks beneath our feet. First, God governs all creation from the highest to the lowest, from the farthest to the nearest — from the orbits of moons in unseen galaxies to the shadows of leaves in our front yard.

The suffering of Peter's audience may have seemed frustratingly random. So too with our own suffering: cruel spouses and false 'friends,' careening cars and spreading viruses may seem, by all appearances, ungoverned: arbitrary menaces in an arbitrary world. But here, Peter reminds us that behind every creature, animate and inanimate, stands a Creator — a Creator so involved in the details of his world that suffering reaches us only if he, in his wisdom and lovingkindness, deems 'necessary' (1 Peter 1:6; 3:17)."

Outreach Prayer

Community Pregnancy Center
Prescott, Arizona

Join us in praising God for CPC. We are grateful for an institution that offers care and counseling to women who are faced with the challenges of unexpected pregnancies with the desire to reach these women with the hope of the Gospel.

Here are some reasons to be praising God:

- For continued provision of finances, supplies, and volunteers.
- For a successful annual fundraiser, in which CPC exceeded their goal.
- For mothers who choose life as a result of CPC's care for them.

Please also join us in prayer for CPC:

- For continued provision for CPC so that future mothers and their babies would be cared for.
- For volunteers and staff, that they would have unity, strength, and sincerity as they serve women in need.
