

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month

For Your Joy
by John Piper

"The Almighty wants you to be happy! This evangelistic book addresses several key questions about God and us that everyone needs answers to. Use it to share with unbelievers that Jesus, the greatest being in the universe, is not just calling them to come, but calling them to come for their joy!"

- John Piper

Weekly Resource

"Do You Long for Truth and Meaning in Life? Read Hebrews"

by Dennis E. Johnson

"Do you find yourself weary with life's humdrum struggles, discouraged by opposition, dismayed by dangers, and doubting God's promises of a better future? Hebrews presents a realistic but hopeful paradigm to make sense of your daily experience: like the Israelite generation who left Egypt with Moses, your life is a trek through a hostile wilderness, en route to a homeland that transcends this sin-stained earth (Heb. 3:7–4:13; Heb. 11:9–10, 13–16; Heb. 13:14). Hebrews strengthens drooping hands and weak knees with its display of Jesus, faith's pioneer and perfecter who endured the cross and despised its shame (Heb. 12:2–3) to liberate his brothers and sisters and lead them to glory (Heb. 2:10–15)."

Outreach Prayer

The Grove Church Planting Network

Join us in praising God for the Grove Church Planting Network, its member churches, and the first church plant, Mosaic Church in Mesa.

Here are some reasons to be praising God:

- For His provision of a faithful church in an area where it is much needed.
- For Grove's member churches and their commitment to plant healthy churches throughout Arizona.
- For John Pope and Chandler Nick and their commitment to plant and lead Mosaic Church.

Please also join us in prayer for The Grove and Mosaic Church:

- For Mosaic Mesa as they finish their training this fall in preparation for launch in January.
- For God to stir the hearts of likeminded pastors to partner with the Grove and for gospel-hearted men to sense the urgency and risk planting a church for Jesus!

Hebrews 4:1-13

"A Warning of Resting Too Soon"

1. Is there a proper role for fear in the Christian life?
2. How does the offer of God’s rest motivate our obedience?
3. How do negative examples of the past help Christians today?
4. What are practical ways believers should strive to enter God’s rest?
5. How does the context change your original understanding of Hebrews 4:12-13?
