

The London Baptist Confession of 1689

XXII. Of Religious Worship and the Sabbath Day

7. As it is of the Law of nature, that in general a proportion of time by God's appointment, be set apart for the Worship of God; so by his Word in a positive, moral, and perpetual Commandment, binding all men, in all Ages, he hath particularly appointed one day in seven for a ^aSabbath to be kept holy unto him, which from the beginning of the World to the Resurrection of Christ, was the last day of the week; and from the resurrection of Christ, was changed into the first day of the week bwhich is called the Lord's day; and is to be continued to the end of the World, as the Christian Sabbath; the observation of the last day of the week being abolished.

^aEx. 20:8 b1 Cor. 16:1–2; Acts 20:7; Rev. 1:10

8. The Sabbath is then kept holy unto the Lord, when men after a due preparing of their hearts, and ordering their common affairs aforehand, do not only observe an holy ^arest all the day, from their own works, words, and thoughts, about their worldly employment, and recreations, but also are taken up the whole time in the public and private exercises of his worship, and in the duties ^bof necessity and mercy.

^aIsa. 58:13; Neh. 13:15–23 ^bMatt. 12:1–13

Our elders have made helpful comments on these two points on the Sabbath. Scan the QR code below to read these comments.

Ministry Highlight: Ushers

We extend our heartfelt thanks to the faithful men and women who serve as our ushers each week. With warm smiles, caring hearts, and a spirit of welcome, they open our doors, guide our steps, and help create a space where all may enter into worship with joy and dignity. Their willingness to serve behind the scenes reflects the love of Christ and strengthens our fellowship as God's people.

If you are interested in serving 1/month on our Usher Team, please contact Danny Manchester for more information at dmanchester12@gmail.com.

Book of the Month

Look and Live: Behold the Soul-Thrilling, Sin-Destroying Glory of Christ

by Matt Papa

"If your heart feels weary, distracted, or dulled to the beauty of Christ, Matt Papa's Look and Live is a gift. He writes to remind us that lasting transformation doesn't come from trying harder, but from beholding Christ more clearly. This book is a gentle but thrilling call to fix your gaze on the glory of God as the true source of life and joy and personal transformation.

I frequently recommend Look and Live as a refreshing, hope-filled invitation to turn your eyes away from lesser things and to rediscover the life-giving wonder of Jesus Himself."

– Pastor Jason

Weekly Resource

"In the School of Contentment"

by Doug Eaton

"Though we may hate every minute of it at first, as the Lord teaches us to trust in him more and more, we find a peace that passes all understanding. Our faith finds stronger footing, our worship becomes more profound, and the contentment that fills our souls will be richer than ever before.

If you are currently in the school of contentment and the Lord has you facing adversity, look to him. No matter the pain or heartbreak you may face, if you see your heart clinging to your Savior, he is doing a blessed work in your life."
