

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month

For Your Joy
by John Piper

"The Almighty wants you to be happy! This evangelistic book addresses several key questions about God and us that everyone needs answers to. Use it to share with unbelievers that Jesus, the greatest being in the universe, is not just calling them to come, but calling them to come for their joy!"

- John Piper

Weekly Resource

"A Devotional on the Most Glorious of Birthdays by Charles Spurgeon"
by Leland Ryken

"The Word made flesh means hope for the human race, notwithstanding its fall. The race is not to be outlawed. . . , for, lo, the Lord hath married into the race, and the Son of God has become the Son of man. This is enough to make all that is within us sing for joy.

Further, it is clear that if God condescends to be so intimately allied with humankind, he intends to deliver man, and to bless him. Incarnation prophesies salvation. . . When God stoops down to man, it must mean that man is to be lifted up to God. What joy there is in this!"

- For the people that have given time, energy, and resources to YTGRM

Here are some things to pray:

- For a family that is transitioning out of YTGRM
- For one mom to get childcare for her children and more hours at work.
- For God to provide a third person to help cover overnights at the Mission when night staff is unavailable.

Isaiah 42:10–17

"The Servant Through Whom God Saves"

1. Read 42:10-12. How does God want us to respond to His salvation?

2. Reflecting on these verses, do you sing to the Lord from the heart? If not, ask Him to recapture your affections so you can sing from the heart.

3. Isaiah 42:12 portrays God’s people as those who speak of Him to the nations. Identify people in your life who need to hear about your Savior. Make an effort to pray for them and look for opportunities to make Christ known to them.
