

The London Baptist Confession of 1689

XXVI. Of the Church

9. The way appointed by Christ for the Calling of any person, fitted, and gifted by the Holy Spirit, unto the Office of Bishop, or Elder, in a Church, is, that he be chosen thereunto by the common ^asuffrage of the Church itself; and Solemnly set apart by Fasting and Prayer, with imposition of hands of the ^bEldership of the Church, if there be any before Constituted therein; And of a Deacon ^cthat he be chosen by the like suffrage, and set apart by Prayer, and the like Imposition of hands.

^aActs 14:23 ^b1 Tim. 4:14 ^cActs 6:3, 5-6

Elders' Comments Regarding 26.9

We believe Scripture indicates that men and women may serve in the office of Deacon (e.g., Rom. 16:1, etc.).

Our practice for the calling of Elders and Deacons from within our church involves the active participation of all church members, though not through a process of formal voting. This includes a due duration of time for all to seriously and prayerfully consider any candidate for these offices and to bring any concerns forward to the candidate, and if needed, to the Elders, for resolution or further processing, guiding the decision whether or not to affirm any candidate into said office.

The Elders of Canyon Bible Church may also choose to call a man an Elder if he comes to us having been ordained at another church, has remained in good standing, and fulfills the qualifications of 1 Timothy 3:1-7 and Titus 1:5-9. (1 Thess. 3:2)

Ministry Highlight: James' Gems

James' Gems is a unique ministry at Canyon dedicated specifically to caring for and encouraging the widows of our church, inspired by James 1:27 and God's call to treasure and support them. Rather than functioning as a teaching or grief ministry, James' Gems provides fellowship, group activities, educational opportunities, and practical support when specific needs arise. The ministry aims to remind each widow that she is deeply loved and valued by the church, to offer familiar and friendly faces, to encourage continued faithfulness to the Lord, and to cultivate joy and fun together. For more information about James' Gems or the Friends of the Gems (FOGs), please contact Lynn Penner at lynndpenner@gmail.com

Small Groups

If you are interested in joining a home fellowship group for fellowship, prayer, and Bible study, contact Dave Lutz at dlutz@canyonprescott.org

"Glorious, Obvious Difference: The Complementary Souls of Men and Women"
by David Mathis

"Clearly our bodies, as male and female, were different. And our instincts, while complementary, plainly differed. Of course, we had differing life experiences and families of origin, and so we exhibited the typical variances between any two humans. But the main differences, the ones that mattered most, and had the most potential, corresponded to one simple yet complex reality: I am a man, and she is a woman. We knew this.

However, looking back now, twenty years later, I'm not sure we yet knew how different we were — on the outside, yes, but even more on the inside, the things you can't see at a glance. We were not yet deeply aware of the complementary differences God had sown deep into our masculine and feminine souls."

OUTREACH PRAYER

The Grove Church Planting Network Arizona

Join us in praising God for for Jordan Standridge, his family, the church he leads, and their gospel ministry in Rome.

Here are some reasons to be praising God:

- The Standridges have moved into their new house
- For growth they are seeing in the lives of people in their church
- For "C" as he has reached out and asked to study the Bible with Jordan. He is a Chinese man who lives near the church

Here are some ways to be praying:

- That the Lord would continue to use counseling meetings to change hearts
- For the transition of their publishing ministry
- For their church plant – for continued strength, unity, faithfulness, and growth
- That God would save C and cause him to be born again
