

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

12 Ways Your Phone Is Changing You
by Tony Reinke

"There are so many ways we can grow in apathy, but the most sure is to be distracted by lesser pursuits and take our eyes off the Lord. There are many distractions that the world will throw at us, but our phones are not just one of the ways these distractions come. Rather, all of these distractions can come to us through our phones. We would be foolish not to recognize our need, as the world changes, to think biblically with discernment about these new ways that technology can influence us. This book helps us do just that — consider these twelve ways that your phone is changing you."

"Why Obedience in Small Things Means Everything"
by Adriel Sanchez

"In life, it's easy to look past the small things as insignificant. But in the Christian life, those small things make all the difference. In the Gospels, Jesus is attentive to those who were considered "small" in society, from the sick (whether with physical ailment or sin) to the little children. God cares about the things we often overlook.

This principle is important when thinking about Christian obedience. We can't be obedient in the greater things if we spend our lives dismissing what we think are trivial aspects of faithfulness to God. Usually, these are the kinds of things no one else notices. The Pharisees looked obedient to everyone around them, but they lacked integrity. Devotion to God on the big stage without devotion to God in the closet is often just a mirage. It's in the daily grind that our love is tested, and it's there that it's cultivated as well."

Outreach Prayer
Indigenous Bible College
Flagstaff, Arizona

Join us in praising God for IBC and their ministry in training up students for the work of ministry to Native Americans.

Here are some reasons to be praising God:

- Several new students, both full and part-time have begun taking classes this semester.
- Daniel and Coreen Esplin will be able to lead a class on biblical manhood and womanhood in Arkansas

Here are some ways to be praying:

- For these new students as they learn to adjust to classes and other activities through IBC.
- That the class Daniel and Coreen are leading will have positive impact on students who attend.
- For the overall unity and strength for IBC's staff.

Isaiah 48

"It's a New Day"

1. Read 48:3-5. Why did God tell His people the things that have happened in the past before they even happened?
2. Read 48:6-8. Why does God tell His people that He's not going to specifically tell them what will happen in the future?
3. Read 48:9-11. How would you answer somebody who told you they didn't want to be a Christian because of how much Christians suffer?
4. Read 48:17-20. What are some of the blessings for obedience that God gives to us?
5. How are children blessed when parents walk in obedience to the Lord?
6. Read 48:20-21. This passage is about God's rescue of His people from Babylon. What does He want those rescued people to understand about their new life?
7. Read 48:22. Why do you think God ends this section with a warning like this?

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page. In the bottom right corner, there is a small, stylized illustration of a quill pen, angled diagonally upwards towards the left. The quill has a dark grey body and a lighter, feathery tip. A small puddle of ink is visible at the base of the quill's nib. The overall appearance is that of a clean, unused piece of stationery or notebook paper.
