Elder's Comments:

26.15 Speaks of activities among “Many churches holding communion together”

We affirm the value and importance of partnering with like-minded churches (those united in the Gospel of Christ), collaborating for mutual edification and support (e.g., Conferences, joint projects, fellowship, the sharing of resources, etc.)

Ministry Highlight: James' Gems

James' Gems is a unique ministry at Canyon dedicated specifically to caring for and encouraging the widows of our church, inspired by James 1:27 and God's call to treasure and support them. Rather than functioning as a teaching or grief ministry, James' Gems provides fellowship, group activities, educational opportunities, and practical support when specific needs arise. The ministry aims to remind each widow that she is deeply loved and valued by the church, to offer familiar and friendly faces, to encourage continued faithfulness to the Lord, and to cultivate joy and fun together. For more information about James' Gems or the Friends of the Gems (FOGs), please contact Lynn Penner at lynndpenner@gmail.com

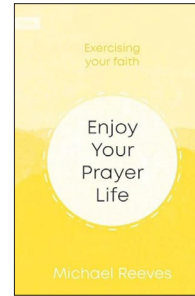

Small Groups

If you are interested in joining a home fellowship group for fellowship, prayer, and Bible study, contact Dave Lutz at dlutz@canyonprescott.org

"Why Churches Should Recognize Women As Deacons"

by Jesse Johnson

"Yesterday I looked at how the New Testament describes the office of a deacon. Today I want to argue this point: the Bible describes women as holding this office, and the church should follow the New Testament's example in similarly recognizing women who are exceptional servants by identifying them as deacons.

The qualifications for deacons are listed in 1 Timothy 3:8-13. The key verse for this discussion is right in the middle: verse 11 says, 'Women must likewise be dignified, not malicious gossips, but temperate, faithful in all things.'

There are four different views on this verse, and I want to explain why I don't find the first three interpretations convincing before defending what I think is the biblical view."

OUTREACH PRAYER

Community Pregnancy Center Prescott, Arizona

Join us in praising God for CPC. We are grateful for a place that offers care and counseling to women facing the challenges of unexpected pregnancies, with the desire to reach these women with the hope of the Gospel.

Here are some reasons to be praising God:

- That CPC was able to set up a booth at Resonate Conference last week and provide students with volunteer opportunities
 - For the babies who have been saved through CPC
 - For the mothers / families that have received Christlike care
 - For continuous provision of staff, finances, and supplies
- A local church donated 14 car seats to CPC to give to mothers

Here are some ways to be praying:

- That God would provide for the serious need of more volunteer members
- That God would continue to use CPC to save babies and care for hurting mothers
 - For continued financial provision for CPC
- For all staff as they seek to help mothers, fathers, and babies succeed and understand the love of Christ
