

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month

Experiencing the Trinity
by Joe Thorn

"Experiencing the Trinity offers 50 brief meditations for the weary, reminding them of the Father's care, Christ's salvation, and the Spirit's strength. Thorn's pastoral tone gently points struggling hearts to God's grace. Each reflection is concise yet deeply encouraging, ideal for those feeling exhausted and spiritually drained. The book reassures readers that endurance comes from resting in God's love, not their own effort."

Weekly Resource

"Prayerlessness Comes Before a Fall"
by Bobby Scott

"Prayer is not a convenient luxury that we can casually employ when we feel like it. We are at war, and war demands spiritual countermeasures to protect ourselves against spiritual attacks (Ephesians 6:10–12), the world's enticements (1 John 2:15–17), and the corruptibility of our own flesh (Colossians 3:5). Prayer and praying correctly is, therefore, an indispensable means of grace in our daily war.

But to heed Jesus's instructions, we first need to understand them and apply them correctly. In calling us to pray, "Lead us not into temptation," Jesus is not suggesting that the Father never tests believers (Genesis 22:1), and neither is he suggesting that the Father himself tempts us to sin (James 1:13). Rather, Jesus's instruction should be understood as a general appeal for the Father's protection. In praying, "Lead us not into temptation," we are asking the Father to guard our faith so we don't fall before the deceitfulness of sin."

Hebrews 12:1–3

"Running Your Race with Endurance"

1. What suffering or trial are you facing right now that is causing you to feel weary or discouraged?
2. How can you consider Christ's example of enduring hostility to strengthen you in your own struggles?
3. In what ways can you actively fix your eyes on Jesus during times of suffering or discouragement?
4. How does remembering the "joy set before Him" help you endure your own challenges?
5. How can you resist the temptation to grow weary or lose heart in the face of ongoing hardship?
6. Are you depending on Christ's strength to endure, or are you trying to carry the burden alone?
7. How can you use your current trial as an opportunity to grow in dependence on God?
8. What are some practical ways to encourage others who may be struggling with weariness in their own race of faith?

In the bottom right corner, there is a small, stylized illustration of a pen nib, suggesting the paper is intended for handwriting practice or as a template for a letter.
