

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

"Jesus Is the Way to Sanity This Election Season"

by Daniel Seabaugh

"Jesus offers something far better than the status quo—something no election or political party could ever produce. Jesus offers peace. He tells us to not let our hearts be troubled or afraid (John 14:27). He leads us beside quiet waters and restores our souls (Psalm 23:2-3).

Jesus is ruling and reigning now and forever. His rule has no term limits. We can rejoice because there will never be a day when he is not on the throne. I'm not suggesting that Christians stay out of the political arena, though I respect one's right to do so and have heard good reasons why one might. My great aim is to remind us that our political candidates aren't Jesus and can't deliver us the way Jesus can.

In the midst of another tumultuous political season, we must find time to sit in God's presence, stay there, and never leave. If we're to keep our sanity this election cycle, we must prioritize time with the lover of our souls..."

Join us in praising God for YTGRM and the ministry that this organization is involved in. Praise God for the celebration of 13 years of serving women and children in need. We are grateful that YTGRM has been able to care for the lost and hurting with both temporal and eternal needs.

Please join us in prayer for YTGRM. Pray for volunteers and staff, that they would have unity, energy, and sincere hearts when caring for their guests. Pray for the continued provision of resources to keep this ministry going. Finally, pray for those in the care of YTGRM, that each person would feel settled and comfortable, that God would provide employment, that healing would take place, and that they would be receptive to the love of God found in Jesus Christ.
