

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Weekly Resource

"God is Good... All the Time"
by Costi Hinn

"Think about the best things that have happened to you lately. If you're a Christian who has received a promotion, a raise, a new car, a bigger home, a newer home, a good report from the doctor, a healthy baby delivered, or that job you've always wanted...you've probably said these words:

'God is so good!' And you're absolutely right... He is.

But could there be more to His goodness than just the bright side of your story? It seems like our first response when things are going right is to declare His goodness, but the Bible paints a picture of God's character of goodness even in the darker times. Was God still good when He allowed Satan to afflict Job with suffering? Was God still good when He didn't answer Paul's prayer to remove the torment of Satan via the thorn in the flesh? Now personalize it. Is God still good if you lose your job, lose your home, can't have a child, or the doctor says you have 6 months to live?

It's a sobering thought that will test the core foundation of how we view God."

Outreach Prayer
 Indian Bible College
 Flagstaff, Arizona

Join us in praising God for IBC! God is gracious in providing a place for young people to attend school in order to be equipped with biblical, relational, and practical wisdom in order to take the message of Jesus Christ to Native Americans and others that do not know our Savior. Praise God for safe travels that IBC staff members had taken for conferences, recruitment, missions, and even restful vacations. Praise God for connections made with churches both local and across the US.

Please join us in prayer for IBC. Pray for staff and returning students as they begin the 2024/2025 school year in a couple of weeks. Pray for new incoming students. Pray that the Lord would provide more students. Pray that there would be great fellowship, instruction, and encouragement for all involved with IBC in this new school year. Finally, pray that staff and students would grow in their delight in the Lord and in fulfilling His call for them.

Isaiah 26:20–27:13"God's Treatment of His People"

1. Read Genesis 7:1, 16, and Exodus 12:22-23. What parallels do you see with Isaiah 26:20? What does this tell you about God?

2. What does Isaiah mean in 27:7? How can this comfort you today?

3. In 27:8, Isaiah says that God has dealt out his discipline "measure by measure". This means that the discipline that we've experienced has been measured out perfectly by God. Why is this truth important to understand?

4. In 27:4, God is speaking about the thorns and thistles (unbelieving people) that He will destroy so that they can no longer harm His people. Yet, verse five makes a shocking offer. What is God offering to those unbelieving people?

5. One of the key truths in this passage is that God's people don't receive the same type of punishments that His enemies do. Think of the answer to this next question - "Why is God good for Him to give you, a believer, the trials that you face in this life?"
