

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Weekly Resource

"God Wrote a Book: The Wonder of Having His Words"
by David Mathis

"We actually have the words of God. This is almost too good to be true. And yet how often are we so accustomed to this reality — one of the greatest wonders in all the universe — that it barely moves us to handle the Bible with care (and awe), or at least to access his words with the frequency they deserve?"

Familiarity can breed contempt, or at least neglect. While scarcity drives demand, abundance can lead to apathy. For many of us, we have multiple Bibles on our shelves, in multiple translations. We have copies on our computers and phones. We have access to the very words of God like never before — yet how often do we appreciate, and marvel at, the wonder of what we have?"

Outreach Prayer

Community Pregnancy Center
Prescott, Arizona

Join us in praising God for CPC. We are grateful for an organization that offers care and counseling to women who are faced with the challenges of unexpected pregnancies. Praise God for the continued financial provision for CPC. Praise God that CPC seeks to provide the greatest need: the hope of the Gospel of Jesus Christ!

Please also be in prayer for CPC. Pray that the staff will continue to have the time and energy to serve their patients. Pray that the Lord would continue to provide financially. Pray that those whom CPC serves would have open hearts to the Gospel. Pray that many lives would be saved through this ministry.
