

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month

Dark Clouds, Deep Mercy
by Mark Vroegop

"Lament is how you live between the poles of a hard life and trusting God's goodness. Lament is how we bring our sorrow to God—but it is a neglected dimension of the Christian life for many Christians today. We need to recover the practice of honest spiritual struggle that gives us permission to vocalize our pain and wrestle with our sorrow. Lament avoids trite answers and quick solutions, progressively moving us toward deeper worship and trust."

Weekly Resource

"The Only Way Out of Our Desperate Hypocrisy"
by Casey McCall

"The Bible wisely draws attention to a grave problem most of us would rather ignore—that there's often a disconnect between perception and reality. Or, to put it another way, we often portray an image of ourselves that does not accurately capture the essence of who we really are. When we look honestly, we'll see that we're frequently fake, inauthentic, and hypocritical. We go through life accepting all kinds of praise for things perceived as virtuous when we know, deep down, that we undertook those actions from selfish motives.

Here's our universal dilemma. We can all perform righteous actions that merit praise, but what, if anything, can we do about our selfish motives? Do we just resolve to do our best and hope no one notices? Do we make peace with our inconsistencies and shrug our shoulders because, after all, no one's perfect? Or is there hope for change? Can perception and reality be united in righteousness?"

Outreach Prayer

El Camino Bible Church
Nicaragua

Join us in praising God for Pastor Frank, his family, and the church he leads. Praise God for His continual providence and care for our brothers and sisters in Central America. Praise God for the ability for Pastor Frank to continue to lead and preach God's Word on a consistent basis.

Please join us in prayer for Pastor Frank and the church. There are drastic social and political shifts going on in Nicaragua, and that is affecting Christians nationwide. Pray that our fellow believers would remain courageous. Pray that they would trust in God's sovereignty over the current situation. Pray that Pastor Frank would continue to be able to preach the Gospel, and pray that this preaching would result in great edification for believers as well as in the salvation of lost souls. Finally, pray that Pastor Frank, his elders, and the members of their church would act wisely and obediently.

Isaiah 29

"Religious Hypocrisy and Its Solution"

1. Read 29:13. What are some of your observations about these religious hypocrites? What do you think they are like at church or when talking to other people?

2. Is there any way that you can identify with the hypocrisy described in v. 13? If so, talk to the Lord about this and ask Him to forgive and to continue to change you.

3. Do you see any similarities between what is taught in v.14 and what is taught in vv.22-24?

4. If you were talking to another believer who was convicted of their own hypocrisy, what encouragement would you give them based on how God treats Jerusalem in this passage?
