

The London Baptist Confession of 1689

XIV. Of Repentance unto Life and Salvation

1. Such of the Elect as are converted at riper years, having <sup>a</sup>some times lived in the state of nature, and therein served divers lusts and pleasures, God in their Effectual Calling giveth them Repentance unto Life.

2. Whereas there is none that doth good, and sinneth <sup>a</sup>not; and the best of men may through the power, and deceitfulness of their corruption dwelling in them, with the prevalency of temptation, fall into great sins, and provocations; God hath in the Covenant of Grace, mercifully provided that Believers so sinning, and falling, <sup>b</sup>be renewed through Repentance unto Salvation.

3. This saving Repentance is an <sup>a</sup>evangelical Grace, whereby a person being by the Holy Spirit made sensible of the manifold evils of his sin, doth, by Faith in Christ, humble himself for it, with godly sorrow, detestation of it, and selfabhorrence; <sup>b</sup>praying for pardon, and strength of grace, with a purpose and endeavor by supplies of the Spirit, to <sup>c</sup>walk before God unto all well pleasing in all things.

4. As Repentance is to be continued through the whole course of our lives, upon the account of the body of death, and the motions thereof; so it is every man's duty, to repent of his <sup>a</sup>particular known sins, particularly.

5. Such is the provision which God hath made through Christ in the Covenant of Grace, for the preservation of Believers unto Salvation, that although there is no sin so small, but it deserves <sup>a</sup>damnation; yet there is no sin so great, that it shall bring damnation on them that <sup>b</sup>repent; which makes the constant preaching of Repentance necessary.

<sup>a</sup>Rom. 6:23 <sup>b</sup>Isa. 1:16, 18; Isa. 55:7

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welcome Center

Our Welcome Center can be found in the lobby before and after Sunday morning service. This is a great place to get connected and ask questions about our church. Also, you will find helpful resources such as info on our outreach ministries, Bibles and Bible study tools, a preaching schedule, and more!

Prayer Requests & Attendance

We would love to know that you've joined us this morning and how we can be praying for you. Please use the Worship Guide insert to register your attendance and submit a prayer request. You may place this insert in the offering bag toward the end of today's service.

Ministry Highlight: Sunday Morning Coffee

The Coffee Ministry is a simple yet meaningful way God uses hospitality to bless our church by creating space for conversations, fellowship, and welcoming guests. Volunteers serve more than coffee—they extend the love of Christ through warmth and care that strengthens community. Opportunities to serve include the set-up team, which brews coffee and stocks supplies, or the clean-up team, which washes and resets stations. If you're interested in serving once a month or more, please contact Ian Beaver at

ian.beaver@hey.com

Small Groups

If you are interested in joining a home fellowship group for fellowship, prayer, and Bible study, contact Dave Lutz at

RESOURCES

Book of the Month

Disrupted Journey: Walking with Your Loved One through Chronic Pain and Illness
by Nate Brooks

"If life is precisely as you hoped and Plan A is working out great for you, you probably don't need this book. Keep scrolling. If you are somewhere in the midst of Plan B or Plan F and looking to heaven with both frustration and trust, you'll benefit from this book. This book was written to encourage those walking with a loved one through chronic pain or illness, but its biblical principles and encouraging reminders are helpful to all of us."

— Pastor Jason

Weekly Resource

"How to Rightly Train Your Affections"
by Casey McCall

"In church culture, I've run into this mindset quite a few times. For example, I've had church members through the years tell me, "I don't like children." My response is some version of, "You need to repent." Jesus doesn't give us the option of liking children or not. He rebuked his disciples when they sought to turn children away, saying, "Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these" (Mark 10:14-15). I also once heard a pastor say, "I don't like people." Again, that's not an option for any of Christ's people and certainly not for pastors.

If you are in Christ, you ought to be training your affections toward such things as worship, fellowship, missions, mercy, truth, justice, and righteousness. Christ's people must learn to love what God loves and hate what God hates."

PASSAGE DISCUSSION

Philippians 1:3–11

"What Brings About Christian Affection?"

1. Who comes to your mind when you think of who you partner with in the cause of the gospel?
2. Knowing what you know about the disunity present in the Philippian church, how would verse six be an encouragement to them?
3. What would it mean for your love to abound more and more? What would that practically look like in your life?
4. Pray for God to further grow your love and affection for other believers as you seek to partner together for the sake of the gospel.
