

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month
Dark Clouds, Deep Mercy
by Mark Vroegop

"Lament is how you live between the poles of a hard life and trusting God's goodness. Lament is how we bring our sorrow to God—but it is a neglected dimension of the Christian life for many Christians today. We need to recover the practice of honest spiritual struggle that gives us permission to vocalize our pain and wrestle with our sorrow. Lament avoids trite answers and quick solutions, progressively moving us toward deeper worship and trust."

Weekly Resource
"Have Mercy on Me: Four Glimpses into the Heart of God"
by David Mathis

"The mercy of God is one of the most precious realities in the world, one of the most revealing themes in all the Bible, and one of the most tragically misunderstood truths about God. If you want to know who God really is, if you want to peek into his heart, it is not the display of his just wrath and cosmic power to which you should look. Rather, set your eye on his mercy, without minimizing the fullness of his might, and take in the life-changing panorama.

Many of us today are prone, by nature and nurture, to see God's mercy as peripheral or incidental to who he is. We suspect that perhaps he shows mercy by accident or weakness. But if we let the Scriptures have their say, we will see that when God shows his mercy, he does so with utter intentionality and strength, and we as his creatures get our deepest glimpse of who he is not just in his sovereignty but his goodness. Not simply in his greatness but his gentleness. Not only in his towering might but also in his surprising tenderness."

Outreach Prayer

The Grove Church Planting Network and Mosaic Church Mesa

Join us in praising God for the Grove Church Planting Network and for the first church plant through this ministry: Mosaic Church of Mesa. We are grateful that Christ is building His church. We are grateful for a healthy church that will be planted in an area where there are none. Praise God for the raising up of John Pope and Chandler Nick to be the founding pastors of Mosaic.

Join us in praying for the Grove and Mosaic Church. Pray that each church in the network would grow in unity and a desire to plant more churches in the future. Pray that God would provide financial, spiritual, and other needs for Mosaic Mesa. Pray that, as Mosaic holds start-up events, that they would be able to reach out to people in the area and promote interest in this church. Pray that John and Chandler would be prepared as they aim to officially launch Mosaic Mesa in January 2025

Isaiah 30

"The LORD Waits to Be Gracious"

1. Read 30:2 and then Deuteronomy 17:16. Why would it be such an affront to God for His people to turn to Egypt during this time?

2. Read 30:15. How would quieting our hearts and trusting the LORD be strength for us?

3. In 30:18 Isaiah says that the LORD ‘waits to be gracious to you.’ Why would He wait to be gracious to His people?

4. How do you think 30:20 was fulfilled in Jesus Christ’s coming?

5. Why do you think God wanted wayward Jerusalem to know the truths found in verses 19-33?

6. One of the themes of this chapter is the unreliability of idols. Are there things or people in your life in which you rely too much on providing you meaning or security? If so, reflect on how those people or things are not able to do what only the Lord can do.
