

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Outreach Prayer

The Church in Nicaragua

Please join us in prayer for Pastor Frank and the church in Nicaragua. Pray for wisdom to learn from their experiences over the past year. Pray that Pastor Frank would lead the congregation well. Pray that their planned activities in December will honor the Lord. Pray their congregation would have a desire for Jesus and His riches more than for worldly "success."

by Matt Perman

"We all have things to get done. We all have tasks to accomplish and goals to achieve, and we would all like to be more efficient and organized about it. Whether you are a productivity and time management nerd or not, this book provides a biblical foundation for why we "get things done", and some practical advice on how to be more productive."

A Softer Prosperity Gospel: More Common Than You Think

by David Schrock

"While evangelicals have traditionally decried the prosperity gospel in its "hard" form, there is a softer form of this teaching that is all too common among us.[1] Often undetected by Bible-believing Christians, it assumes the gospel and leads its adherents to focus on things like financial planning, diet and exercise, and strategies for self-improvement. In contrast to the hard prosperity gospel, which offers miraculous and immediate health and wealth, this softer, subtler variety challenges believers to break through to the blessed life by means of the latest pastor-prescribed technique."
