

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Outreach Prayer

The Church in Nicaragua

Please join us in prayer for the church in Nicaragua. Praise God for the recent family retreat. Pray that those who attended were positively impacted by Pastor Frank's instruction and the fellowship with their brothers and sisters. Pray for strength and health for Pastor Frank and his family as he continues to faithfully teach God's Word at El Camino Iglesia Biblica.

1 Corinthians 15:35-57

What do I learn about God?

Is there anything for which I should repent based on this text?

How might God use this passage to make me look more like Christ?

How does this passage affect evangelism?

How can I edify the church based on what this passage says?

Book of the Month

The Compelling Community

by Mark Dever & Jamie Dunlop

God's people are called to a togetherness and commitment that transcends all natural boundaries—whether ethnic, generational, or economic. But such a community can be enjoyed only when it relies on the power of God in the gospel.

"Please devour this book! The Compelling Community provides an excellent biblical blueprint to help us stay on mission as Christ builds His church."
- Pastor John

Weekly Resource

A Constant Dying

by Jacob Crouch

"Martyr stories have always encouraged me. It might seem morbid to think that a story of someone losing their life can be beautiful, but these stories expose that there are some things that are more valuable than life. God often uses these stories of courage and commitment to bring in lost souls, to build the church, and to encourage the saints to live a life of greater service to God. As a young Christian, I used to say confidently, "I would die for Christ," but as I get older, I am realizing more and more that dying for Christ might be the easier thing."
