

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Outreach Prayer

The Standridge Family in Rome

Please join us in prayer for the Standridge Family as they continue to faithfully preach God's Word in Rome. Praise God for the opening of their new church home and for the new evangelical opportunities which have come as a result. Please pray for God to provide wisdom and patience as they show the love of Christ to the people of Rome.

1 Corinthians 16 "Finally, Love"

What do I learn about God?

Is there anything for which I should repent based on this text?

How might God use this passage to make me look more like Christ?

How does this passage affect evangelism?

How can I edify the church based on what this passage says?

Book of the Month

The Compelling Community

by Mark Dever & Jamie Dunlop

God's people are called to a togetherness and commitment that transcends all natural boundaries—whether ethnic, generational, or economic. But such a community can be enjoyed only when it relies on the power of God in the gospel.

"Please devour this book! The Compelling Community provides an excellent biblical blueprint to help us stay on mission as Christ builds His church."
 - Pastor John

When I Was Losing My Marriage,

Jesus Taught Me to Forgive

by Sheila Dougal

"I remember standing on the patio of the home my husband had purchased with his portion of our divided assets, months after we separated.

I was bouncing our eight-month-old on my hip and keeping my eye on our two-year-old while he showed me all the things he was finding at daddy's new house. Hot tears spilled. My throat tightened. I loved this man. I wanted our family whole. But instead it was broken, and I felt my heart could literally be bleeding out of my chest...

During this painful time in my life, I began to learn what it means to forgive, and my new understanding made me love God all the more."
