

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Community Pregnancy Center

Please join us in prayer for Community Pregnancy Center of Prescott. Praise God for the continued provision of adequate staffing for the CPC to continue to serve the Prescott area. Praise Him for His continued protection of the staff, volunteers, clients, and buildings.

Please pray for wisdom for client advocates as they counsel those who may be abortion-minded. Pray for God to help them convey a sense of hope and assurance that God is sovereign over the timing of their pregnancies. Pray for those who have already chosen abortion to hear about the forgiveness and grace that can be found in repentance and faith in Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 15:20-34

<sup>20</sup>But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. <sup>21</sup>For as by a man came death, by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead. <sup>22</sup>For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive. <sup>23</sup>But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ. <sup>24</sup>Then comes the end, when he delivers the kingdom to God the Father after destroying every rule and every authority and power. <sup>25</sup>For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. <sup>26</sup>The last enemy to be destroyed is death. <sup>27</sup>For "God has put all things in subjection under his feet." But when it says, "all things are put in subjection," it is plain that he is excepted who put all things in subjection under him. <sup>28</sup>When all things are subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to him who put all things in subjection under him, that God may be all in all.

<sup>29</sup>Otherwise, what do people mean by being baptized on behalf of the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why are people baptized on their behalf? <sup>30</sup>Why are we in danger every hour? <sup>31</sup>I protest, brothers, by my pride in you, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die every day! <sup>32</sup>What do I gain if, humanly speaking, I fought with beasts at Ephesus? If the dead are not raised, "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die." <sup>33</sup>Do not be deceived: "Bad company ruins good morals."<sup>34</sup>Wake up from your drunken stupor, as is right, and do not go on sinning. For some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame.

Book of the Month

The Compelling Community

by Mark Dever & Jamie Dunlop

God's people are called to a togetherness and commitment that transcends all natural boundaries—whether ethnic, generational, or economic. But such a community can be enjoyed only when it relies on the power of God in the gospel.

"Please devour this book. The Compelling Community provides an excellent biblical blueprint to help us stay on mission as Christ builds His church."
 - Pastor John

Father, Long Before Creation

by Jesse Johnson

"Father, Long Before Creation" is one of my favorite hymns because it is a hymn about one of my favorite doctrines: the covenant of redemption. The song was written by Chinese Christians who were facing startling persecution in the cultural upheaval of the 1950's. At some point it was translated into English and eventually Andrew Osenga (at the time part of Cademan's Call) wrote joyful music to accompany it.

The hymn's background helps explain why both the song and the doctrine of the covenant of redemption are so comforting. When faced with a world that seems to be falling apart, rather than going forward to heaven, or backwards to the cross, the hymn instead directs the worshiper to a time before nations existed and before people rebelled. In fact, the song draws us back before Genesis 1:1—and not just a day or two before Genesis, but "long before creation."
