

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

What Does it Mean to Fear the Lord?

Rejoice & Tremble

by Michael Reeves

"With so much about the fear of the Lord in Ecclesiastes, I thought it would be helpful to recommend two resources by Michael Reeves. "What Does it Mean to Fear the Lord" is the abbreviated version of "Rejoice and Tremble." So if you want a small taste of this topic, the former is for you. For a deeper dive, read "Rejoice and Tremble." You won't be disappointed."

Unanswered Prayer

by Tim Challies

"Last night I sat with a group of men from our church and talked about prayer. And, as usually happens, our thoughts turned toward unanswered prayer or prayer that is answered very differently than we had asked or hoped. Why are there times when God seems not to answer? If a good Father would never give his children a stone in place of bread, why does it seem like God sometimes does this very thing?"

Outreach Prayer

The Standridge Family in Rome

Please join us in prayer for the Standridge Family in Rome. Praise God their church - Chiesa Emmanuel has now been meeting in their new location for a couple of months now. Praise Him for all the evangelistic opportunities that have arisen from their new location.

Pray for God to continue to provide evangelistic opportunities in the church, in the kids' school, and during an upcoming English Camp. Pray for health for the Standridge's 9-year-old son Nico and for wisdom for the doctors as they try to determine the cause of recent fainting episodes.
