

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

What Does it Mean to Fear the Lord?

Rejoice & Tremble

by Michael Reeves

"With so much about the fear of the Lord in Ecclesiastes, I thought it would be helpful to recommend two resources by Michael Reeves. "What Does it Mean to Fear the Lord" is the abbreviated version of "Rejoice and Tremble." So if you want a small taste of this topic, the former is for you. For a deeper dive, read "Rejoice and Tremble." You won't be disappointed."

The Awkward Duty of Encouragement:

How Men Strengthen Other Men

by Mack Stiles

"We understand that joy comes to us when others encourage us, but we don't always think about how we gain joy when we encourage others. It's easy to tear down, to disparage, to be critical. It's hard to build up, spur others to godly action, and find the good in others. But to spur men to grow in Christ, they need to be encouraged."

Outreach Prayer

The Yavapai Territorial Gospel Rescue Mission

Please join us in prayer for the Gospel Rescue Mission. Pray for endurance, patience, and wisdom for the volunteers as they shepherd clients through very difficult times in their lives. Pray for the clients to feel the love of Christ through those volunteers. Pray the clients will hear the gospel message in chapel and experience the transforming power of redemption through Jesus Christ.
