Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

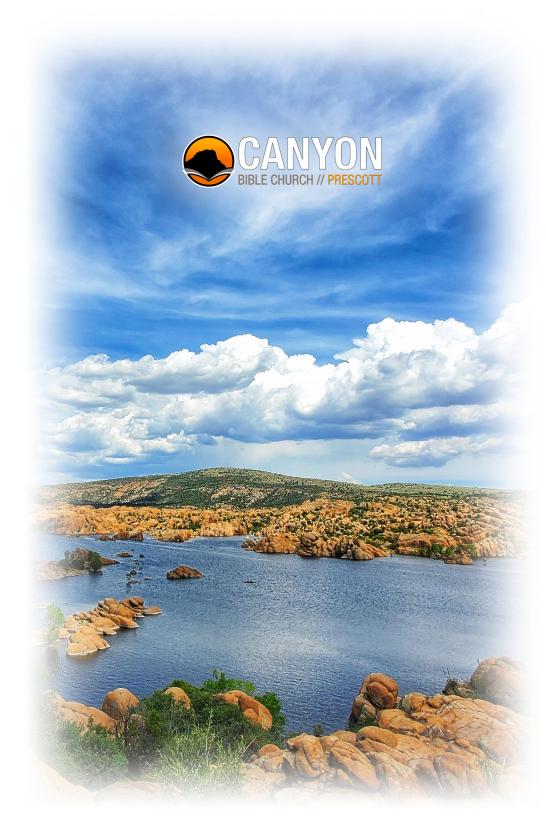

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Books of the Month What Does it Mean to Fear the Lord? Rejoice & Tremble

by Michael Reeves

"With so much about the fear of the Lord in Ecclesiastes, I thought it would be helpful to recommend two resources by Michael Reeves. "What Does it Mean to Fear the Lord" is the abbreviated version of "Rejoice and Tremble." So if you want a small taste of this topic, the former is for you. For a deeper dive, read "Rejoice and Tremble." You won't be disappointed."

- Pastor Andrew

Weekly Resource The Gospel's War Against Our Fears and Insecurities by John Piper

"Fear is out of step with the gospel. The gospel does not beget fear. Paul said in 2 Timothy 1:7, "God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control." If you come this morning afraid (and I'm sure in a crowd like this, there are many), maybe of something very specific that's on the way, or maybe (as sometimes happens to me) just a cloud of anxiety — you can't put your finger on what in the world it is. You just feel tense and anxious and that something's going to go bad today. If you come like that this morning, you know what you need more than anything in the world? You need to see the gospel."
