

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Outreach Prayer

The Grove Network

Please join us in prayer for the Grove church planting network. Praise God for the newer member churches whose leadership has committed to faithfully fulfilling the commission set before us in Matthew 28:19. Please pray for those who are preparing for the fall 2023 conference. Pray for encouragement as they work long hours to make it possible for the member churches to gather together. Pray for God to use the conference to draw additional like-minded churches to this important objective.

Ecclesiastes 3:16-4:6

"Surrounded by Evil"

What do I learn about God?

Is there anything for which I should repent based on this text?

How might God use this passage to make me look more like Christ?

How does this passage affect evangelism?

How can I edify the church based on what this passage says?

What Does it Mean to Fear the Lord?

Rejoice & Tremble

by Michael Reeves

"With so much about the fear of the Lord in Ecclesiastes, I thought it would be helpful to recommend two resources by Michael Reeves. "What Does it Mean to Fear the Lord" is the abbreviated version of "Rejoice and Tremble."

So if you want a small taste of this topic, the former is for you. For a deeper dive, read "Rejoice and Tremble." You won't be disappointed."

The Calm Will Be the Better

by Tim Challies

"There was no silence like the silence that descended over the trenches of Western Europe on the morning of November 11, 1918. At exactly 11 AM, an armistice came into effect that brought a halt to all fighting on land, sea, and air. Never had silence been better appreciated than when that silence marked the end of the four brutal years we now call the First World War. In its own way, the silence was a song that told of the cessation of hostilities and the dawning of peace."
