

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Friend-ish: Reclaiming Real Friendship in a Culture of Confusion

by Kelly Needham

5 Misconceptions about Heaven and Hell

(and 5 Truths)

by Jon Nielson

"Because there is so much confusion and incorrect teaching about both heaven and hell, we will start by digging into some of the most common false beliefs about both places. As always, we want to counter false ideas about these doctrines with the truth of the Bible. The most common misconceptions about heaven and hell have to do with their nature and purpose. There are many false ideas about what they will be like and what will happen there, but the word of God gives us clear pictures in both cases."

Outreach Prayer

Community Pregnancy Center - Prescott

Please join us in prayer for Community Pregnancy Center of Prescott. Praise God for His continued protection and provision for their campus, their staff, and their clients.

Praise Him for the teen client who has been taking classes and desires to be a good mother to her unborn child. Pray she would hear the gospel and see the plans God has for her life and that of her child.

Pray for continued protection and provision for the staff, clients, and facility, pray for abortion-minded hearts to be changed, and pray for safe and healthy deliveries for the clients who have chosen life.

Pray for those who have already made the choice for abortion. Pray they would hear the gospel, and know there is grace, forgiveness, and redemption through Jesus Christ.
