

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Anchored: A Fellowship of Hope

6:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.

At 114 S Marina Street in Prescott - next to the Solid Rock Chapel. The mission of this ministry is to help and encourage suffering believers by pointing them to the anchor for their soul, Jesus Christ, through biblical instruction and compassionate support. Contact Pastor Josh at jarellano@canyonprescott.org with any questions.

Book of the Month

Friend-ish: Reclaiming Real Friendship in a Culture of Confusion

by Kelly Needham

"In a world that either idolizes or confuses friendship, even the church can be influenced by the atmosphere we are surrounded by. Kelly is the wife of well-known singer/songwriter, Jimmy Needham, and gives us a fresh and much-needed dose of Gospel perspective on friendship."

- Pastor Jason

Weekly Resource

"Are They the Ones Who Pray All the Time?"

by Glenna Marshall

"For dinner that night, I'd roasted some potatoes and seared some spicy chicken (which my seven-year-old deemed way too hot). Before we ate, we grabbed hands as my husband prayed. He mentioned some news of the day in his prayer, things we wanted to remember before the Lord. A couple from church had suddenly lost an adult child that morning, which I'd learned through a heartbreaking phone call from the bereaved mother that afternoon. He prayed for them, his voice tightening, then breaking. It's difficult to know how to pray for such a grievous loss.

After the "amen," my teenager asked, "Now who are they again? The ones who lost their son?" I reminded him of their names—they're relatively new to the church. I described their appearances and where they usually sit in the sanctuary, but he cut me off: "Oh, I know them. Are they the ones who pray all the time?"

"Yes, that's them." I nodded. "They pray with anyone and everyone at a moment's notice." I paused and looked at my husband—"Gosh, that's how I'd like to be known. The one who prays all the time."

Outreach Prayer

El Camino Iglesia Biblica
Chinandega, Nicaragua

Please join us in prayer for Pastor Frank and El Camino Iglesia Biblica in Nicaragua. Pray as they spend time in Luke 12 this morning, they would be reminded of God's provision of all they need.

Please pray specifically for their upcoming membership meeting on July 12th, and for their plans to start a Student Ministry this coming August. Pray for God to use that ministry to reach the young people of Chinandega with the promise of the gospel.

Pray for endurance for Pastor Frank, to continue to faithfully lead El Camino Iglesia Biblica in the study of God's Word.
