

Daniel 2:24-30 REVEALER OF MYSTERIES

Intro

I believe the central truth of this chapter is that it is God who reveals mysteries so that we might trust Him and point others to His glory. The word “reveal” appears seven times throughout this chapter—once in vv. 19, 22, 28, 29, and 30, and twice in v. 47.

I. Daniel’s Confident Life Saving Intervention (24-25)

II. Daniel’s God Given Revelation (26-28)

God's called man stands before the kings & rulers of this earth it is always so that they might exalt God's glory.

An important theological truth in this passage concerning God being the “revealer of mysteries”: God reveals what is hidden, He reveals what human wisdom cannot discover, and He reveals it so that we might know His sovereign purposes and trust His everlasting love, judgment, & coming kingdom.

This teaching flows throughout the whole of the Bible:

- Deuteronomy 29:29 –
- Amos 3:7 –
- 1 Corinthians 2:9–10 –
- Ephesians 3:3–5 –

III. Daniel’s Purpose in Receiving God’s Revelation (29-30)

Tying it all together...
