Affirmation of Faith

Westminster Shorter Catechism 82-84

Q. 82: Is any man able perfectly to keep the commandments of God?

Answer: No mere man, since the fall, is able in this life perfectly to keep the commandments of God, but doth daily break them in thought, word, and deed.

*"A true and faithful Christian does not make holy living an accidental thing. It is his great concern. As the business of the soldier is to fight, so the business of the Christian is to be like Christ."
(Jonathan Edwards)*

Q. 83: Are all transgressions of the law equally heinous?

Answer: Some sins in themselves, and by reason of several aggravations, are more heinous in the sight of God than others.

Q. 84: What doth every sin deserve?

Answer: Every sin deserves God's wrath and curse, both in this life, and that which is to come.

CONFESSION

Corporate Confession of Sin

O Lord, You are intimately acquainted with all of our ways, with our thinking and speaking, with our actions and attitudes. Nothing is hidden from Your sight. In these moments of confession, we stand before You and acknowledge what You already know to be true about us, that we are sinners. We recognize that even our best thoughts and our best efforts are tainted by sin. We ask for Your grace and mercy. By the work of Your Holy Spirit, search our hearts and reveal those things which keep us from You and restore us to Yourself as we silently confess our sins.

For if you return to the Lord, your brothers and your children will find compassion with their captors and return to this land. For the Lord your God is gracious and merciful and will not turn away His face from you, if you return to Him.
