“GOD'S REDEMPTIVE PROMISES AND PLAN OF SALVATION: THE FOUNDATION OF MISSION, PART 6” ROMANS 10:5-13 ROBBY BAXTER

Key Truth: Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.

Introduction:

Q: What gives you confidence in your ability to be an ambassador for Jesus in your various spheres of influence?

Romans 10:5-13: The Nearness of Christ in the Gospel

“What Moses had said about his teaching, Paul now affirms about the gospel. It is neither remote nor unavailable. There is no need to ask who will ascend to heaven to bring Christ down or descend to Hades to bring Christ up. Storming the ramparts of heaven and potholing in Hades, in search of Christ, are equally unnecessary. For Christ has come and died, and been raised, and is therefore immediately accessible to faith. We do not need to do anything. Everything that is necessary has already been done. Moreover, because Christ Himself is near, the gospel of Christ is also near. It is in the heart and mouth of every believer. The whole emphasis is on the close, ready, easy accessibility of Christ and His gospel.”

John Stott, The Message of Romans

Application:

Romans 10:5-13 teaches us that:

-Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.

Benediction: Romans 12:1-2
