“GOD'S REDEMPTIVE PROMISES AND PLAN OF SALVATION: THE FOUNDATION OF MISSION, PART 11” ROMANS 11:25-36 CAMERON BARHAM

Key Truth: The mystery of God's redemptive will and workings ought to lead us to worship with hope and expectation.

Introduction:

Q: How do you respond when you encounter mystery of any kind?

Romans 11:25-36: The Mystery of God's Saving Grace: The Reason We Worship:

“For eleven chapters Paul has been giving his comprehensive account of the gospel. Step by step he has shown how God has revealed his way of putting sinners right with himself, how Christ died for our sins and was raised for our justification, how we are united with Christ in his death and resurrection, how the Christian life is lived not under the law but in the Spirit, and how God plans to incorporate the fullness of Israel and of the Gentiles into his new community. Paul's horizons are vast. He takes time and eternity, history and eschatology, justification, sanctification and glorification. Now he stops, out of breath. Analysis and argument must give way to adoration.”

John R.W. Stott, The Message of Romans: God's Good News for the World

Q: Does the mystery of God's redemptive will and workings lead you to worship with hope and expectancy?

Application:

Romans 11:25-36 teaches us that:

-the mystery of God's redemptive will and workings ought to lead us to worship with hope and expectation

Communion

Benediction: Romans 12:1-2
