ROMANS 15:14-21

CAMERON BARHAM

---

Key Truth: God calls us to be full of goodness and filled with knowledge to be able to instruct one another in living out the Gospel.

Introduction:

Q: Who has recently encouraged you in your faith in Christ?

Romans 15:14-21: Paul's Hospitable Priestly Ministry:

"Goodness is the quality which will constrain the strong to refrain from what will injure the weak and knowledge is the attainment that will correct weakness of faith. The treatment of differences in 14:1-15:13 was not hypothetical; there must have been a situation requiring it. But we must not exaggerate the situation; the church was "full of goodness, filled with all knowledge". Thus the believers there were themselves able to instruct and admonish one another."

John Murray, The Epistle to the Romans

Q: Are you aware of what might injure others in your spheres of influence? Are you knowledgeable enough about Scripture and associated faith to be able to edify and instruct others?

Application:

Romans 15:14-21 teaches us that:

-God calls us to be full of goodness and filled with knowledge to be able to instruct one another in living out the Gospel

Benediction: Romans 16:25-27
