

WELCOME to Christ the King!

We're so glad you're here today. We are an evangelical, Reformed congregation of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA), passionate about worshipping and serving the Lord together. We pray that you will be blessed today through the ministry of God's Word. If you have any questions about our church, please see Pastor Jason following the worship service or feel free to contact him throughout the week at pastorjasonCTK@gmail.com

Our MISSION & VISION

As a local church we exist for God's glory to love, worship, and serve our triune God by encouraging and equipping the people of God for the work of ministry throughout Port St. Lucie. Together we strive to do this in three ways: as we gather together, as we grow in Christ, and as we go into the world.

The Celebration of the LORD'S SUPPER

As we partake of the Lord's Supper today, we welcome all to the Table who've made a public profession of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and are currently communing members in good standing with a Bible-believing church. If you haven't yet trusted in Christ for salvation, and/or you haven't submitted yourself to the spiritual oversight and discipline of a local church, we kindly ask that you refrain from partaking of the Sacrament.

Fellowship LUNCHEON & PRAYER Meeting

Please join us for our fellowship luncheon immediately following the morning worship service; and then as we gather together this afternoon for prayer at 3:30, before ending our Lord's Day together in worship at 4:30 this evening.

NURSERY for Infants & Toddlers

We gladly welcome children of all ages into corporate worship each week. However, we're also sensitive to the varying needs and ability of children to sit through an entire worship service. For that reason, we do provide a nursery for our younger children.

Faithful to the Scriptures. True to the Reformed Faith. Obedient to the Great Commission.

Christ the King is a proud member of the Presbyterian Church in America.

+The Confession of Faith

WCF 17.1-2 Of the Perseverance of the Saints

Those whom God has accepted in his Beloved, effectually called, and sanctified by his Spirit, can neither totally nor finally fall away from the state of grace, but shall certainly persevere in it to the end and be eternally saved. The perseverance of the saints does not depend upon their own free will, but upon the immutability of the decree of election, flowing from the free and unchangeable love of God the Father; upon the efficacy of the merit and intercession of Jesus Christ, the abiding of the Spirit, and of the seed of God within them, and the nature of the covenant of grace. These are grounds of the certainty and infallibility of their perseverance.

I Know Whom I Have Believed

The Confession of Sin

Lord, no day of our lives has passed that has not proved us guilty in your sight. Our prayers have been uttered from prayerless hearts; our praise has often been praiseless sound; and our best services have been but filthy rags. All things in us call for our rejection, yet all things in you plead for our acceptance. We are guilty, but pardoned; lost, but saved; wandering, but found; sinning, but cleansed. Though our sins rise to heaven your merits soar above them; though unrighteousness weighs us down to hell, your righteousness exalts us to your throne. Keep us always broken-hearted, clinging to the cross, and overwhelmed by your grace.

The Assurance of Pardon

Ezekiel 36:25-27

“From all your idols I will cleanse you. And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes and be careful to obey my rules.”
