

WELCOME to Christ the King!

We're so glad you're here today. We are an evangelical, Reformed congregation of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA), passionate about worshiping and serving the Lord together. We pray that you will be blessed today through the ministry of God's Word. If you have any questions about our church, please see Pastor Jason following the worship service or feel free to contact him throughout the week at pastorjasonCTK@gmail.com

Our MISSION & VISION

As a local church we exist for God's glory to love, worship, and serve our triune God by encouraging and equipping the people of God for the work of ministry throughout Port St. Lucie. Together we strive to do this in three ways: as we gather together, as we grow in Christ, and as we go into the world.

The Celebration of the LORD'S SUPPER

As we partake of the Lord's Supper today, we welcome all to the Table who've made a public profession of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and are currently communing members in good standing with a Bible-believing church. If you haven't yet trusted in Christ for salvation, and/or you haven't submitted yourself to the spiritual oversight and discipline of a local church, we kindly ask that you refrain from partaking of the Sacrament.

Fellowship LUNCHEON & PRAYER Meeting

Please join us for our fellowship luncheon immediately following the morning worship service; and then as we gather together this afternoon for prayer at 3:30, before ending our Lord's Day together in worship at 4:30 this evening.

NURSERY for Infants & Toddlers

We gladly welcome children of all ages into corporate worship each week. However, we're also sensitive to the varying needs and ability of children to sit through an entire worship service. For that reason, we do provide a nursery for our younger children.

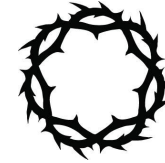

Faithful to the Scriptures. True to the Reformed Faith. Obedient to the Great Commission.

Christ the King is a proud member of the Presbyterian Church in America.

WLC Qs. 46&47

Q. What was the estate of Christ's humiliation?

A. The estate of Christ's humiliation was that low condition, wherein he for our sakes, emptying himself of his glory, took upon him the form of a servant, in his conception and birth, life, death, and after his death, until his resurrection.

Q. How did Christ humble himself in his conception and birth?

A. Christ humbled himself in his conception and birth, in that, being from all eternity the Son of God, in the bosom of the Father, he was pleased in the fullness of time to become the son of man, made of a woman of low estate, and to be born of her; with various circumstances of more than ordinary abasement.

The Reading of God's Word (Responsive)

Isaiah 42:1-9

PASTOR: Behold my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen, in whom my soul delights; I have put my Spirit upon him; he will bring forth justice to the nations.

CHURCH: He will not cry aloud or lift up his voice, or make it heard in the street; a bruised reed he will not break, and a faintly burning wick he will not quench; he will faithfully bring forth justice.

PASTOR: He will not grow faint or be discouraged till he has established justice in the earth; and the coastlands wait for his law.

CHURCH: Thus says God, the LORD, who created the heavens and stretched them out, who spread out the earth and what comes from it, who gives breath to the people on it and spirit to those who walk in it:

PASTOR: "I am the LORD; I have called you in righteousness; I will take you by the hand and keep you; I will give you as a covenant for the people, a light for the nations, to open the eyes that are blind, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, from the prison those who sit in darkness.

CHURCH: I am the LORD; that is my name; my glory I give to no other, nor my praise to carved idols. Behold, the former things I now declare; before they spring forth I tell you of them."

Psalter Reading

Psalms 25:1-10

PASTOR: To you, O LORD, I lift up my soul. O my God, in you I trust; let me not be put to shame; let not my enemies exult over me.

CHURCH: Indeed, none who wait for you shall be put to shame; they shall be ashamed who are wantonly treacherous.

PASTOR: Make me to know your ways, O LORD; teach me your paths. Lead me in your truth and teach men, for you are the God of my salvation; for you I wait all the day long.

CHURCH: Remember your mercy, O LORD, and your steadfast love, for they have been from of old.

PASTOR: Remember not the sins of my youth or my transgressions; according to your steadfast love remember me, for the sake of your goodness, O LORD!

CHURCH: Good and upright is the LORD; therefore he instructs sinners in the way. He leads the humble in what is right, and teaches the humble his way.

UNISON: All the paths of the LORD are steadfast love and faithfulness, for those who keep his covenant and his testimonies.

O Come, All Ye Faithful

The shepherds began saying to one another, "Let us go straight to Bethlehem then, and see this thing that has happened which the Lord has made known to us." Luke 2:15

1. O come, all ye faith - ful, joy - ful and tri - um - phant, O come ye,
2. Sing, choirs of an - gels; sing in ex - ul - ta - tion; sing, all
3. Yea, Lord, we greet Thee, born this hap - py morn - ing; Je - sus,

O come ye to Beth - le - hem! Come, and be - hold Him, ye cit - i - zens of heav'n a - bove! Glo - ry to God, all to Thee be all glo - ry giv'n! Word of the Fa - ther, born the King of an - gels!

glo - ry in the high - est! O come, let us a - dore Him; O come, let us now in flesh ap - pear - ing!

a - dore Him; O come, let us a - dore Him, Christ, the Lord!
