- A. The work of creation is God's making all things of nothing, by the word of his power, in the space of six days, and all very good.

for in due season we will reap,
if we do not give up.”

Whatever we have of the world in our hands, our care must be to keep it out of our hearts, lest it come between us and Christ.

Matthew Henry

Recommended Reading

Looking out at the world today, it can be easy for Christians to lose heart. The Apostle Paul evidently felt the same way. His remedy was to teach us not to focus on the things that are seen but on the things that are unseen. “For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal” (2 Cor. 4:18). Every day, we must reorient our thoughts around the unchanging truth of Christ: who He is and who we are in Him. In this yearlong devotional, Dr. Sinclair Ferguson brings his signature warmth and wisdom to daily meditations on the Christian life. Each week’s reflections follow a theme to help Christians look to the Lord and live by faith.
