Ready, Even Eager, for Rejection

(Acts 22:30-24:27; Pastor; 10/4/26)

Theme ➔ As evidenced by the apostle Paul, faithful gospel ministry invariably produces persecution, so all believers must expect, even rejoice over rejection and suffering for faithfully proclaiming the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

I. Hostile Interrogation of Paul (Acts 22:30-23:10)

II. Murderous Conspiracy Against Paul (Acts 23:11-22)

III. Slanderous Charges Against Paul (Acts 23:23-24-27)
   A. Groundwork for Trial Laid (23:23-35)

   B. Slanderous Accusations Leveled (24:1-9)

   C. Defense by Paul Given (24:10-27)
      1. General Defense before Felix (24:10-23)

      2. Private Explanation to Felix and Druscilla (24:24-27)

So what's a reasonable expectation for believers as they live their lives in this world and faithfully proclaim the gospel of Christ?

Ready, Even Eager, for Rejection

(Acts 22:30-24:27; Pastor; 10/4/26)

Theme ➔ As evidenced by the apostle Paul, faithful gospel ministry invariably produces persecution, so all believers must expect, even rejoice over rejection and suffering for faithfully proclaiming the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

I. Hostile Interrogation of Paul (Acts 22:30-23:10)

II. Murderous Conspiracy Against Paul (Acts 23:11-22)

III. Slanderous Charges Against Paul (Acts 23:23-24-27)
   A. Groundwork for Trial Laid (23:23-35)

   B. Slanderous Accusations Leveled (24:1-9)

   C. Defense by Paul Given (24:10-27)
      1. General Defense before Felix (24:10-23)

      2. Private Explanation to Felix and Druscilla (24:24-27)

So what's a reasonable expectation for believers as they live their lives in this world and faithfully proclaim the gospel of Christ?