

The Courage to Preach Repentance

Mark 6:6b-30

December 7, 2025 – Eric Abbey

Theme: Jesus commissions us to exercise his dominion by preaching repentance, therefore we should boldly share the gospel and anticipate conflict, just as his forerunner did and just as he did.

- I. What was the nature of the apostles' dominion? (Mark 6:6b-30)
 - A. The apostles given dominion to preach repentance (6b-13)
 1. They are sent out to teach with authority (6:6b-7)
 2. Instructed to have faith, but to expect unbelief (6:8-11)
 - a. Charged to be exodus ready (6:8-9, cf. Ex. 12:11)
 - b. Charged to anticipate rejection (6:10-11)
 3. They go out to preach repentance (6:12-13)
 - B. John's example of dominion through preaching (6:14-29)
 1. Jesus identified with John the Baptist (6:14-16)
 2. What dominion looked like for John the Baptist (6:17-29)
 - a. John's preaching produced suffering (6:17, cf. 1:14)
 - b. John preached repentance (6:18-20)
 - c. John died because of his preaching (6:21-29)
 - C. The apostles return with a report of dominion (6:30)
- II. What is the nature of your dominion?
 - A. Exercised through the bold preaching of repentance
 - B. Expected to include conflict and suffering
