

Shared Dominion, Shared Opposition

Mark 2:1-3:6

November 2, 2025 – Eric Abbey

Theme: Because we share in Christ's dominion by faith, we can confidently and boldly declare His authority, courageously facing the opposition it brings.

- I. Dominion Displayed: Jesus Declares His Authority (Mark 2:1 - 3:6)
  - A. His ability to save sinners provokes opposition (2:1-28)
    1. His authority to forgive sinners (2:1-12)
      - a. Questioning Jesus' authority in their hearts (2:1-7)
      - b. His answer of authority: I am the Son of Man! (2:8-12)
    2. His authority to call sinners to himself (2:13-17)
      - a. Questioning Jesus' authority to the disciples (2:13-16)
      - b. His answer of authority: I came for sinners! (2:17)
    3. His authority when present with sinners (2:18-22)
      - a. Questioning Jesus about his authority (2:18)
      - b. His answer of authority: They celebrate me! (2:19-22)
    4. His authority to lead sinners (2:23-28)
      - a. Questioning Jesus about his authority (2:23-24)
      - b. His answer of authority: I am the Son of Man! (2:25-28)
  - B. His ability to confront hard hearts maximizes opposition (3:1-6)
    1. Accusing Jesus of harmful authority (3:1-4)
    2. His display of authority: Doing good is lawful! (3:5-6)
- II. Dominion Shared: The Church Declares Jesus' Authority
  - A. Confidently celebrating His authority to save us
  - B. Boldly proclaiming His authority to build the church
