

Great Christian Books

Books That Have Influenced My Life By Pastor Scott E. Slaughter

(Revised 3/8/04)

I hope you will find these books as helpful in your Christian life, as I have. In many ways, I am indebted to these authors for their Christian walk and scholarship. They have become my lifelong friends though some I have never met. Of course, I am not necessarily endorsing every position of every author but some men despite disagreements one may have are worth reading.

Jay Adams, Competent To Counsel

Marvin Alasky, The American Tradition Of Leadership

Joseph Alleine, Alarm To The Unconverted

Richard Baxter, The Reformed Pastor

Os Guinness, Unriddling Our Times

D. Martyn Lloyd-Jones, Preachers And Preaching

D. Martyn Lloyd-Jones, Spiritual Depression #2

Erwin Lutzer, Doctrines That Divide #10

John MacArthur, Successful Christian Parenting #5

John MacArthur, The Gospel According To Jesus #1

Rene Pache, The Inspiration & Authority Of Scripture #8

J.I. Packer, A Passion For Faithfulness

Arthur W. Pink, The Attributes Of God #9

John Piper, Desiring God #4

J. Oswald Sanders, Spiritual Leadership #6

W.G.T. Shedd, Dogmatic Theology

R.C. Sproul, The Invisible Hand

John R.W. Stott, Between Two Worlds

Bruce Waltke, Finding The Will Of God #3

Thomas Watson, A Body Of Divinity #7

Alexander Whyte, Lancelot Andrews, and His Private Devotions

Warren Wiersby, God Isn't In a Hurry

These books are available from your local Christian stores. If you have found this list helpful contact the church office for other helpful book lists compiled by Pastor Scott on subjects such as leadership and pastoral ministry, family issues, and more. Or, request a copy of the List of Dealers and Ministries for Books and Materials. May the Lord bless you as you “learn of Him.”
Happy reading!